Transportation

Skybus:

Skybus is an airport bus that runs express between Melbourne Airport (Tullamarine) and Southern Cross Station in Melbourne's city centre 24 hours, 7 days a week, with day departures every 10 minutes.

Public Transport:

Visitors will need a Myki card to gain access to public transportation; Myki is the only accepted pass on trams, trains, and buses. Visitors to Melbourne can buy a special myki Visitor Value Pack to travel on the public transport network. Myki Visitor Value Pack are sold at the Melbourne Visitor Centre at Federation Square, SkyBus terminals at Melbourne Airport and Southern Cross Station, the Public Transport Victoria Hubs and from the concierge desk at many hotels.

Public Transport Victoria offers an online journey planner to help navigate from departure to arrival points throughout the city and the immediate region.

Taxi:

Taxi Cabs often wait in designated ranks that are clearly signposted at central locations like major hotels in the CBD, or busy spots such as Flinders Street Station. You can also hail a taxi in the street. Telephone bookings are also available. Use the fare estimator to work out what your trip is likely to cost. Melbourne cabs attract additional charges like a late night surcharge from midnight to 5am, a fee for phone bookings, a fee for using the Citylink freeway and even a fee for taxis waiting at the airport rank.

Melbourne's major taxi companies include:

13 CABS (Ph 13 22 27 – in Australia)

Silvertop Taxis (Ph 13 10 08 – in Australia)
