

APECSS 2011

For the second time in our brief history, 2011 was an Oxford year for the Patristic members of APECSS and we did not hold a conference. Instead, on 12 August those members in attendance at the Oxford Patristics Conference held a social gathering to renew friendships and catch up on each other's research activities.

